Dear Louise,

I promised myself I would write to you to-day. Well, it's now evening but still to-day. Just finished listening to Walter Cronkite as I usually do every week-day. At 10 p.m. Vice-President Humphrey will be interviewed by Eric Sevareid so until then my time is not scheduled!

Now with the lovely spring days coming, I'm sure you will be enjoying many rides in your new turquoise turquoise Pontiac Tempest. Hope you thoroly enjoy your new car. It sounds great. Many thanks for my lovely
